

Acknowledgment

The ideas presented in this book have been developed as a result of advice and assistance offered by a number of people. It is by the grace of God and the will of the Almighty that we take this opportunity to convey our regards and thanks to those who have helped and supported us at different stages in the completion of the book.

This book would not have been possible without the co-operation and assistance of the staff at IGI Global. We would like to thank our associates at IGI Global, namely Jan Travers for managing the contract and Heather Probst for managing this project and especially for answering queries and helping to keep this project on schedule.
