

Acknowledgments

The authors would like to express their sincere appreciation to the independent referees for their comments concerning refinement of the book.

We thank the following industry professionals who contributed to the development of content, and gave of their valuable time to review specific sections of the book: Barbara Clay, Eric Taylor, Guy Lanyon, Margôt Tesch, Michael Rosemann, Milton Tilbrook, Noel Rath, and Peter Elford.

Our particular thanks go to Jackie Bettington, Dennis Connell, Kylie Jones, and David McAlpin for their valuable and constructive comments on the work as a whole, or on complete parts.

We also thank Sylvia Willie and Guy Gable for their supervision of the Len Asprey research thesis at Queensland University of Technology. This thesis provided a foundation for the document imaging components of the book.

We wish to thank Michele Rossi, our Development Editor from Idea Group, for her support during this project. Thanks also to Carrie Stull Skovrinskie and Megan Matzner, Assistant Marketing Managers with Idea Group, for facilitating marketing strategies. Our thanks to our Managing Editor, Amanda Appicello, for facilitating the final product. And, our thanks to the Copy Editor, Lori Eby, and the Assistant Managing Editor, Jennifer Wetzel, for proofing our project.

Our thanks also go to William Almaguer (Gartner Group) for assistance with Gartner Group publication processes and some relevant documents. We are grateful to the Workflow Management Coalition for granting permission to reproduce the Workflow Reference Model.

We gratefully acknowledge the assistance provided by the Queensland University of Technology with facilities and technical support.

Finally, we would like to thank the many customers and business associates who provided insights into problems encountered within enterprises relating to managing documents and Web content, who offered ideas and suggestions, or who otherwise came forward with topics that needed to be covered in the book.
