

Acknowledgments

The production of this book would not have been possible without the assistance of the institutions and people to whom the author is grateful. The author is greatly indebted to the School of Management and the Business Portfolio of Royal Melbourne Institute of Technology University, Australia, for the teaching relief and the financial support needed to conduct the research for the book. The researcher is also greatly indebted to all those interviewees who devoted their valuable time and constructive input to the book. Also, special thanks go to the anonymous reviewers of my initial book proposal and the entire manuscript of the book for their encouragement, invaluable comments and advice.

Finally, this author gratefully acknowledges the valuable contributions of Ms. Carmen Gould to some of the data collection, case studies, and editorial work of the book.
