

Acknowledgments

The editors would like to acknowledge the help of all involved in the collation and review process of the book, without whose support the project could not have been successfully completed. A further special note of thanks goes also to all the staff at Idea Group Publishing, whose contributions throughout the whole process from inception of the initial idea to final publication have been invaluable. In particular to Michele Rossi, who continuously prodded via e-mail for keeping the project on schedule and to Mehdi Khosrowpour, whose enthusiasm motivated us to initially accept his invitation for taking on this project.

We wish to thank all of the authors for their insights and excellent contributions to this book. Most of the authors of chapters included in this edited book also served as referees for articles written by other authors. Thanks go to all those who provided constructive and comprehensive reviews.

In closing, we are grateful to our parents who by their unconditional love have steered us to this point, and to our wives, sons and daughters who have steadfastly supported us throughout this project. Special thanks go to Ms. Latha Gunasekaran for her diligent work in assisting the review process and compilation of all the chapters, helping to maintain all the documents related to this book over a period of two years.
