

Acknowledgments

The editor would like to acknowledge the help of all involved in the collation and review process of the book, without whose support the project could not have been satisfactorily completed. A further special note of thanks goes also to all the staff at Idea Group Publishing, whose contributions throughout the whole process from inception of the initial idea to final publication have been invaluable.

I want to thank all of the authors for their insights and excellent contributions to this book. Most of the authors of chapters included in this also served as referees for articles written by other authors. Thanks go to all those who provided constructive and comprehensive reviews.

The quality of the chapters was greatly improved by their professionalism and attention to detail. I am grateful to Anders Mørch in particular for making suggestions on how to extend the network of contributors to the book.

Special thanks also go to the publishing team at Idea Group Publishing. In particular to Michele Rossi and Jan Travers, who both supported the project with their excellent administrative skills to keep the project on schedule. I want to thank Mehdi Khosrowpour for the excellent work he is doing to help in the process of disseminating knowledge and for his initial enthusiasm that motivated me to accept his invitation for taking on this project.

Thanks in particular to my wife Nimisha for her support throughout this project.
