

Dedication

One isn't necessarily born with courage, but one is born with potential. Without courage, we cannot practice any other virtue with consistency. We can't be kind, true, merciful, generous, or honest.

This book is dedicated to the memory of Abraham J. Zelmanowitz.

Abraham Zelmanowitz was the man who chose to remain with his friend and disabled coworker Edward F. Beyea on the 27th floor of Tower 1 during the World Trade Center Disaster.

Both men perished when the building collapsed.

The image of such friendship should be a lesson to all of us.
