

Acknowledgments

The chapter authors are first acknowledged not only for their contributions to this book, but also for their efforts to review other chapters. For the reviewing process, special gratitude is also due to other colleagues and friends who kindly read and reviewed different chapters: T. Balanescu, D. Besozzi, E. Csehaj-Varju, M. Margenstern, I. Petre, and G. Vaszil.

Particular thanks go to the publishing team of Idea Group Inc., in particular to Mehdi Khosrow-Pour, who persuaded me to accept the invitation to take on the editorial responsibility, and to Michele Rossi, who continuously helped me with requested details regarding this project and its schedule. Many thanks also to the staff of Idea Group Inc., who supported the project throughout its development.

To all these wonderful people, a deep bow.
