

Acknowledgments

The editors would like to thank all the authors who have submitted chapter proposals, and all authors and reviewers for their excellent contributions and insights, without which this book would not have been possible. Special thanks go to Hsinchun Chen, Edward Fox, Ee-Peng Lim, Ian Witten, Christine Borgman and Edie Rasmussen. We are also grateful to Idea Group Publishing for the opportunity to publish this book focusing on the Asia Pacific region, which we hope will be the first of many more books to come in the future.
