

Acknowledgments

We thank the authors of the chapters in this volume. Your dedication to the topic of global information management and research expertise has made a significant contribution. We would also recognize the members of Idea Group Inc. for their assistance in this project. We would especially like to thank Dr. Mehdi Kosrow-Pour and Jan Travers for their valuable guidance.

We dedicate this book to our children Robb and Jeff (and Brandi) Hunter; and Shaune, Daniel, and Samantha Tan. You continue to challenge and inspire us as you become the next generation of global citizens.

Thank you all very much.
