

Acknowledgment

I wish to thank each of the contributors to this book for their participation in this project and for the excellent cooperation while preparing the book for publication. It has been an inspiring experience to work with this group of outstanding colleagues from different academic backgrounds.

I also wish to express my gratitude to the colleagues that accepted my invitation to assist me in the review process, which helped to improve the quality of this publication. Their names and institutional affiliations are listed at the front of the book.

Furthermore, for their continuous and excellent support during the entire editorial process, I am also grateful to the editorial staff members at IGI Global, in particular to Myla Harty, with whom I worked most directly throughout the development of the book.
