

Acknowledgment

We would like to acknowledge the help of all involved in the production of the book. We are grateful to the members of the Editorial Board whose expert recommendations helped us to shape the structure and content of this book.

Our thanks to the reviewers for their willingness to step in and respond to our requests for their opinions and feedback. They provided critical but constructive feedback on submissions during the review process and engaged in an important dialogue on the themes of the book. Many of the authors of chapters included in this book also served as referees for chapters written by other authors.

We would like to thank Professor Margaret Cox for embracing the values of the book in her engaging and insightful foreword.

Special thanks also go to the publishing team at IGI Global for their unfailing support and encouragement during the time it took to produce this book from the inception of the initial idea to final publication.

In closing, we wish to thank all the authors for their contribution to knowledge that gave birth to this handbook.
