

Acknowledgment

First of all, I express my thanks to the Lord Almighty Allah (the most gracious, the most merciful) without whose blessings it would not have been possible to complete this book project. I would like to extend my appreciation to the members of editorial advisory board (EAB) as well as reviewers without whose generous support and hard work we could not have finished the review process in time. I especially wish to express my heartfelt gratitude and thanks to Ms Hannah Abelbeck, Editorial Assistant (Development Division - Editorial Content Department), IGI Global for her continuous collaboration and help throughout the development process.
