

Acknowledgment

I would like to acknowledge the help of the fifty expert reviewers involved in the double-blind review process for the eighteen accepted chapters of this book without whose support it could not have been satisfactorily completed.

I sincerely thank Ms. Jan Travers, Hannah Abelbeck, Joel Gamon, Mehdi Khosrow-Pour, and other members of the IGI Global, whose contributions throughout the whole process from the inception of the initial idea to the final publication have been invaluable. I also thank my family for their understanding and support for this book project.

In closing, I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to the thirty nine authors for their invaluable contributions and collaboration.
