

Acknowledgment

I wish to thank all of the authors for their insights and excellent contributions to this encyclopedia. Without their dedicated work, this project could not have been satisfactorily completed. I wish to express my heartfelt thanks to our reviewers. Some reviewers have even contributed chapters to this encyclopedia. Their constructive, critical and comprehensive reviews have definitely helped with the quality of this book. No need to say that their reviews set the benchmark. Although their names and affiliation have appeared on the front page of the handbook, I wish to give them another round of applause here again before our readers for their accurate and precise review work. Special thanks also go to the publishing team at IGI Global, whose contributions throughout the whole process from inception of the initial idea to final publication have been invaluable. In particular to Jan Travers and Kristin Klinger who accepted my proposal to publish this groundbreaking encyclopedia in adult education and technology. I would like to thank Dr. Patricia Cranton who wrote a foreword for this book. Dr. Cranton's journal articles and books are widely cited throughout the world and virtually every university library in North America has catalogued her book(s) and her scholarly work can be found from many other countries. And last but not least, my family, Katie Wang, Anni Wang and Anthony Wang, for their unfailing support and encouragement during the many months it took to give birth to this book.

In summary, I wish to thank all of the people for their insights and excellent contributions to this encyclopedia. I thank all of our readers who have become consumers of this excellent book. This book will assist you in your educational and scholarly endeavors.
