

Acknowledgment

As it is obvious, publication of this handbook wouldn't have been possible without the contribution, support, and cooperation of several people. I would like to acknowledge with thanks their contribution.

First, I would like to thank each one of the authors for enthusiastically contributing to the handbook, and thereby sharing his/her research work and insights with the readers of this book. I also gratefully acknowledge their patience, support, and cooperation.

Reviewers play a significant role in ensuring the quality and relevance of a publication, and this publication is no exception. I thankfully acknowledge valuable contributions of our reviewers in improving the quality of the chapters.

Next, I would also like to thank the members of the Handbook Advisory Board for their advice and suggestions.

The editorial team at IGI Global deserves my commendation for their key roles in publishing this volume and in ensuring its quality. In particular, I would like to thank Ms. Christine Bufton, Editorial Communications Coordinator, for her excellent enthusiasm, support, and cooperation. I also thank Prof. In Lee, Editor-in-Chief, Advances in E-Business Research Series (AEBR) Book Series, for his continued support and encouragement. It is not out of place to thank the marketing team at IGI Global for widely promoting the book to those who might benefit from it.

Finally, I would like to thank my wife, Vijayakumari, who has been a constant source of inspiration and encouragement to me in making this book a reality and for providing the beautiful "OM" (also known as "AUM") image that appears on the dedication page. I also thank my other family members, Nithya, Ravi Kumar, Suresh, and Sangeetha, for their support and well wishes.
