

Acknowledgment

We have learned a great deal from those who lead us along our academic career and gratefully acknowledge our debt to them, especially Professor João Álvaro Carvalho.

Our students have contributed in a fundamental way to our work with their editorial assistance, namely: Daniela Gonçalves, Joana Oliveira and Maria Duarte.

To all the members of the Editorial Advisory Board, to the reviewers and to the authors, whose names are published in this book and who have assisted us one way or another, we feel very much grateful.

We would like to express our thanks to the Publishing team at IGI Global for their expert support and guidance.

This book is dedicated to our respective families.
