

Acknowledgment

I owe a great deal of thanks and appreciation to my daughters, Lily and Isabelle, who are a source of inspiration in all that I do, and particularly to my wife Dori, whose continued patience and support were essential to this project. I also owe a special thank you to IGI Global's Hannah Abelbeck for all of her patience, understanding, and guidance throughout this process and to Dr. Donna Kain for all of her technical expertise and help.

Thank you to my husband, Paul, for his support and patience with my editing, my kids Clare and Paul, who are constant reminders to me of why I am a librarian, and to the members of the Catholic Library Association, who have been tremendously inspiring new colleagues.
