

Acknowledgment

We are indebted to all the authors who submitted their chapters and made a great effort in their improvement after all the review rounds that were carried out. Furthermore, we would also like to express our gratitude to the Editorial Advisory Board and to all the reviewers for their effort and work in carefully reviewing all the chapters. Special thanks to Panos Vassiliadis for his willingness in writing such a nice foreword. We owe part of the success of this book to them. Finally, we would also like to express our sincere gratitude to IGI Global for giving us the opportunity to publish this book.
