

Acknowledgment

This acknowledgment is a very small gesture of gratitude towards all the individuals and institutions that have contributed to the development of this book. As this book is based on a study of technology practices followed by companies, it bears the imprints of a large number of IT professionals who have helped us by providing necessary inputs in the form of data and suggestions regarding research design. Unfortunately, it is not possible to thank each one of them individually, though we acknowledge their contribution. We would like to thank Mr. S.C. Mittal, ED (MS & IT) and Mr. R.K., Nagpal, Chief Manager (Systems), both of IFFCO, who very kindly provided details that were highly useful in developing one of the case studies included in this book. We are grateful to Ms. Anjana Maheshwari, Former ED (IT) and Mr. A. K. Narang, Chief Manager (IT), both of Air India, Mr. A. K. Verma, Project Manager, IBM New Delhi, Ms. Rita Kaul, Chief manager, Punjab National Bank, New Delhi, Mr. Rajiv Mehra, Former DGM(IT), Maruti Udyog Limited and Mr. A.S. Puri, APSK Enterprise, for their valuable inputs during the design of the study and their help in getting information on the company practices. We acknowledge with deep regards, the contribution of all the authors of all books and articles referred in this book that helped in developing the framework for the understanding of the issue. Our special thanks are due to Dr. Kamlesh Bajaj, CEO, Data Security Council of India for sparing his valuable time to write Foreword for this publication.

In addition, several institutions, and generous individuals have supported the research that formed the basis of chapters in this book. This includes Prof. Sanjay Sehgal, Head, Department of Financial Studies, and University of Delhi, where the research was originally undertaken. We are thankful to Prof. Dinesh Singh, the then Director, South Campus, University of Delhi, for his constant encouragement and support. Our thanks are also due to Dr. Naveen Kumar, Head, Department of Computer Science, University of Delhi, for his guidance and support. We are also thankful to Dr. Bhim Sen Singh, Principal, Kirori Mal College, University of Delhi for his cooperation. We express our heart felt thanks to our friends and colleagues whose moral support and encouragement have largely contributed in enabling us to complete this book. In this regard, we wish to express our warm and sincere thanks to Prof. Francine Maubourguet, ESC-Pau (France) for her suggestions and guidance.

We are grateful to Ms. Jan Travers for giving us the chance to work with their magnificent staff of IGI Global, and providing guidance during the conception stage of the book. We would like to place on record our appreciation for the untiring efforts of Ms. Myla Harty and her predecessor Mr. Dave DeRicco.

We owe our most sincere gratitude to our spouses Mrs. Raj Kumari and Mr. Mukesh Sareen, respectively, who provided untiring help, comfort and encouragement throughout the period of development of this book. Our loving thanks to our children Shruti, Richa, Komal and Kunal, for their support, cooperation and endurance during the conduct of research and development of the book. We would like to offer our profound thanks to our parents who have always encouraged us and taken pride in our achievements. Without their strength, generosity and deep understanding, it would have been impossible for us to finish this work.
