

Acknowledgment

I would like to acknowledge and thank all of those involved in the development of this book. The entire team at IGI Global was very supportive and helpful. In particular, I wish to thank Julia Mosemann, the Development Editor at IGI Global. Her patience was amazing (and appreciated) while her guidance was always timely, useful, and valued.

The team of reviewers deserves special attention as they very generously provided their time and expertise to ensure a high-quality review process. Often the work associated with chapter review is underestimated and forgotten – thanks to all of you for your great work.

I owe a huge debt of gratitude to my best friend, partner, and soul mate, JoAnn Girard. As the defacto coeditor of this book, JoAnn spent literally hundreds of hours reviewing the chapters. Without her attention to detail, eye for errors, and remarkable knowledge, this volume never would have come to fruition. In addition to her amazing editorial prowess, she provided unconditional support and encouragement throughout the entire process – thanks for everything!

Finally I would like to thank the leading researchers and practitioners who contributed chapters to this book. Without their insights this book would simply not be possible.
