

Acknowledgment

No one walks alone on the journey of life. Just where do you start to thank those that joined you, walked beside you, helped you along the way, and continuously urged you. I want to express my deep sense of thanks and gratitude to all those who made this book possible. Apart from the efforts of myself, the success of this work depends largely on the encouragement and guidelines of many others. I take this opportunity to express my gratitude to the people who have been instrumental in the successful completion of this book.

First of all, I would like to extend my special note of thanks to the publishing team at IGI Global Publishing whose contributions throughout the whole process- from submission of the proposal to final publication – have been invaluable. In particular, thanks to Christine Smith, whose continuous suggestions and valuable information kept me motivated for completing the work on time. The most touching was the greeting card and chocolates which symbolize the humbleness and great character of her and really helped me to work for the project for timely completion. Not to forget I would like to extend my thanks to Kayla Wolfe for her initial support and necessary information. I would also like to thank Jan Travers for timely completion of the contract agreement. I would like to thank all other support staff of Idea Group for extending their full support.

The guidance and support received from all the authors who contributed to this project, was vital for the timely and successful completion of the book. I wish to thank all of the authors for their insights and excellent contributions to this book. I am also grateful for their constant support and help in getting the review done of the chapters which was appreciated by all the authors and had made a great change in the structure of the chapter which ultimately provided constructive and comprehensive reviews. I also want to thank a group of anonymous reviewers who assisted me in the peer-review process. I would like to extend my special thanks to Professor Witold Pedrycz for agreeing to write the foreword for the book. I would also like to thank all the EAB members for their support and valuable advice. My special thanks goes to Professor L.A Zadeh for agreeing to be part of the EAB and helping me to find the professor to write Foreword. Many a thanks Sir!

I also take this opportunity to express a deep sense of gratitude to Prof. Ashok Mittal, Principal of my college for his cordial support, valuable information and guidance, which helped me in completing this task through various stages. I would also like to thank my friends and colleagues for providing me advice and support all through this work.

Finally, yet importantly, I would like to express my heartfelt thanks to my beloved parents for their blessings and motivating words that always encourages me to work hard and to remember that “There is no replacement for hard work.” Not to forget my life is incomplete without the support and confidence which I always get from my beloved wife who is always standing with me for all help. I sincerely thank her for the same. I would also like to openly admit that I would not have worked hard unless I get positive energy and innocent looks from my son who is always beside me to give love and affection.
