

Acknowledgment

A special note of thanks is given to the following researchers, who through their expertise in special education joined the Editorial Advisory Board, assisting the Editor in the manuscript peer reviewing process. In particular, their care and attention to details was appreciated when there were conflicting chapter submission reviews.

Mandi Axmann, Open Universities Australia

Professor Sandra Jones, College of Business, RMIT University, Australia

Professor Toshiaki Honda, Faculty of Education, Ibaraki University, Japan

Professor Kuldip Kaur, Open University Malaysia

Each chapter underwent a strict double-blind review process between authors to evaluate the submissions for this book. There is a special thank you that is due to the generosity of some of these authors who agreed to review extra submissions – due to the promised anonymity they cannot be singled out – all the same, they will know who they are.
