

Acknowledgment

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to my friend and colleague, Dr. Gary Schnellert (University of North Dakota). Thank you Gary for your leadership in coordinating the Editorial Advisory Board (EAB) activities and your invaluable help throughout the chapter manuscript reviews process.

I would also like to acknowledge the considerable time and effort put forth by all the chapter contributors. Thank you for your gracious and timely responses to the reviewers' comments, and for your sincere commitment to submit high quality revised chapters.

I would specially acknowledge the unconditional love of my parents (they taught me life's most valuable lessons: to smile, laugh, and stay positive), and close pals whose friendship and moral support have been priceless during the editing processes of this great book. I am forever indebted to my entire family – you are my constant inspiration! Specifically, I appreciate your sincere acknowledgment and deep understanding that completing this scholarly work required patience and sacrifice on precious family time.

Thanks to the wonderful staff at IGI Global who participated in the overall development and successful completion of this project. Finally, I am very grateful to the Editorial Advisory Board (EAB) team. Their incredibly quick turnaround time in providing invaluable feedback, precise advice, and detailed review notes on every submitted chapter is greatly appreciated. Special thanks to the following EAB members:
