

Acknowledgment

Many fine individuals contributed to this book. First, we would like to express our gratitude to Jan Travers, Director of Intellectual Property and Contracts of IGI Global, who was instrumental in the contracting stage of this project; we also would like to express our gratitude to Hannah Abelbeck and Austin M. DeMarco, Editorial Assistants from IGI Global, for their continuing support for the collection. We availed ourselves of their expert editorial advice at every junction of the whole process. Second, we would also like to thank our reviewers who unselfishly donated their time in reading the chapter proposals and providing very detailed, constructive, and insightful comments for the authors. Without their help and expert opinions, it would have been impossible to make decisions on each submitted chapter. Finally, we are truly grateful to the authors of all chapter proposals who responded to our invitation to submit their best works and made such a high quality collection possible in the first place. The authors and the reviewers of the chapters in this collection deserve all the credit, while the editors are only the ones to blame for any shortcomings and/or omissions.

To conclude, it has been a great pleasure and very rewarding experience for us to edit this collection, and we hope that the reader will have just as much pleasure while reading it.
