PROJECT INTRODUCTION

This project corresponds to a renovation carried out by the Houston Public Library, Morris Frank Branch, completed earlier in the year.

Please describe the planning and design process of the HPL’s Morris Frank Branch (featured in the American Libraries 2010 Library Showcase).

Several years back, the American Library Association (ALA) put out a challenge: “What is an electronic library?” We here in HPL’s Facilities Management along with a small local Architect took up that challenge. We defined it as:

HPL Express is an innovative library service model developed over a three years period by the Houston Public Library. What started as the e-library project, an in-house investigation of better ways to offer
