Handbook of Research on Developing Sustainable Value in Economics, Finance, and Marketing

Part of the Advances in Finance, Accounting, and Economics Book Series

Ulas Akkucuk
(Bogazici University, Turkey)

In an age of rising environmental concerns, it has become necessary for businesses to pay special attention the resources they are consuming and the long-term effects of the products they are creating. These concerns, coupled with the current global economic crisis, demand a solution that includes not only business, but politics, ecology, and culture as well.

The Handbook of Research on Developing Sustainable Value in Economics, Finance, and Marketing provides the latest empirical research findings on how sustainable development can work not just for organizations, but for the global economy as a whole. This book is an essential reference source for professionals and researchers in various fields, including economics, finance, and marketing; operations management; communication sciences; sociology; and information technology.

Topics Covered:

- Ecological Conservation
- Economic Crises and Recovery
- Energy Markets
- Ethics in Management
- Globalization and Sustainable Business
- Green Marketing
- Renewable Energy Resources
- Sustainable Operations Management
- Waste Management
