Table of Contents

Foreword............................................................................................................................................. xv

Preface.................................................................................................................................................... xvii

Acknowledgment..................................................................................................................................... xxi

Section 1
Professionalization, Continuing Professional Development, and International Recognition

Chapter 1
Educating the Central Asian Librarian: Considering the International MLIS in Kazakhstan
................................................................................................................................................................. 1

Celia Emmelhainz, University of California, Berkeley, USA

Chapter 2
Continuing Professional Development and the Philippine Qualifications Framework: A Way Forward to Mutual Recognition Arrangements.................................33

Lourdes Tenmatay David, Professional Regulation Commission of the Republic of the Philippines, Philippines

Chapter 3
Diversity, Indigenous Knowledge, and LIS Pedagogy: Conceptualizing Formal Education in Library and Information Studies in Vanuatu..............................50

Reysa Alenzuela, The University of the South Pacific Emalus Campus, Vanuatu

Margaret Austrai Terry, National Library of Vanuatu, Vanuatu

Chapter 4
10,000 Newly Certified Librarians, 100 Secure Jobs.................................................................78

Daisuke Okada, Soai University, Japan
Section 2
Perspectives in LIS Education: Development, Frameworks, and Policies

Chapter 5
The Changing Curricula of LIS Education in Southeast Asia.........................103
  John Hickok, California State University, Fullerton, USA

Chapter 6
Library Education and Librarianship in Japan and the Philippines .................131
  Alicia Chavarria Esguerra, Bulacan State University, Philippines

Chapter 7
LIS Education ASEANization: An Inchoate Plan? ......................................158
  Reysa Alenzuela, The University of the South Pacific Emalus Campus,
  Vanuatu
  Ana Mae Bantad Cantel, Central Philippine University, Philippines

Section 3
Internationalization of LIS Education: Global Engagement,
Academic Mobility, and Research Collaboration

Chapter 8
Globalization in LIS Education: Perspectives From iSchools in South Korea and the Philippines.................................................................178
  Reysa Alenzuela, The University of the South Pacific Emalus Campus,
  Vanuatu
  Heesop Kim, Kyungpook National University, South Korea

Chapter 9
Internationalization of Library and Information Science Education in Central Asia: The Case of Kazakhstan and Kyrgyzstan.....................................207
  Piotr Lapo, Nazarbayev University, Kazakhstan
  Nurila Davletyarova, I. Arabaev Kyrgyz State University, Kyrgyzstan

Chapter 10
Internationalization of Library and Information Science Education in Tajikistan and Uzbekistan: Implications in Central Asia........................225
  Piotr Lapo, Nazarbayev University Library, Kazakhstan
  Gadobek Makhmudov, The National Library of Tajikistan, Tajikistan
  Marat Rakhmatullaev, Tashkent University of Information Technologies,
  Uzbekistan
Section 4
Technology Integration and Accreditation in Libraries, Archives, and Museums

Chapter 11
Libraries, Archives, and Museums in Guam: Examining the Impact of Information and Communication Technologies ......................................................... 247
   Dante Perez, Father Duenas Memorial School, Guam

Chapter 12
Role of Academic Libraries in the Accreditation Process: A Case of Library Science and Engineering Education in India .................................................. 269
   Shri Ram, Thapar Institute of Engineering and Technology, Patiala, India

Compilation of References ................................................................. 282

About the Contributors ........................................................................ 315

Index ........................................................................................................ 321