Table of Contents

Foreword ........................................................................................................................................... xxiii
Preface ................................................................................................................................................ xxv
Acknowledgment ............................................................................................................................ xxxii

Section 1
Theoretical Basis of Gender Mainstreaming

Chapter 1
Conceptualizing Gender Mainstreaming and Women Empowerment in the 21st Century ............ 1
Irene George, Emirates Institute of Banking and Financial Studies, UAE
Moly Kuruvilla, Department of Women’s Studies, University of Calicut, India

Chapter 2
The Question of Gender Equality: A Feminist Perspective .......................................................... 22
Nazneen A., Government College for Women, Thiruvananthapuram, India

Chapter 3
Gender Responsive Budgeting in India ......................................................................................... 36
Vibhuti Patel, Tata Institute of Social Sciences, Mumbai, India

Section 2
Education and Technology for Women Empowerment

Chapter 4
Gender Bias in School Education ................................................................................................. 54
Thasniya K. T., University of Calicut, India

Chapter 5
Cartography of Gender Mainstreaming in Women-Exclusive Colleges: A Post-Human Perspective ......................................................................................................................... 71
Esther Mani, Little Flower College, India
Chapter 6
Achieving Women Empowerment Through ICT: Case of a Government Initiative in India............. 87

Swati Singh, School of Management Studies, University of Hyderabad, India
Sita Vanka, School of Management Studies, University of Hyderabad, India

Chapter 7
Measuring Empowerment of Women Through Internet: Application of ME Framework in a Research Intervention in India ................................................................. 105

Aparna Purushothaman, Aalborg University, Denmark

Chapter 8
Gender Digital Divide and Technology-Enabled Inclusive Strategies ........................................ 126

Bindu Balagopal, Victoria College, Palakkad, India

Chapter 9
“Fixing” the Gender Divides in ICT Programs Within Universities ............................................. 142

Mayela Coto, Universidad Nacional, Costa Rica
Lone Dirckinck-Holmfeld, Department of Communication and Psychology, Aalborg University, Denmark

Section 3
Engendering the Economy for Gender Equality

Chapter 10
Economic Security and Empowerment of Rural Women: A Case Study of Tamil Nadu, India........ 171

Suganda Ramamoorthi, Lady Doak College, Madurai, India

Chapter 11
Emergence of Entrepreneurship: A Livelihood Strategy of Tribal Women of Andhra Pradesh, India ................................................................. 187

Krishnaveni Motha, National Scheduled Tribes Finance and Development Corporation, India

Chapter 12
Women Empowerment Vis-a-Vis Late Parenting: A Shift in Family Ethos and Priorities in Urban Metropolis in India – Special Reference to Kolkata ......................................................... 204

Maitreyee Bardhan Roy, Diamond Harbour Women’s University, Kolkata, India

Chapter 13
Recounting Major State Policies That Promote the Male Breadwinner Model.......................... 221

Shruti Appalla, Institute of Public Policy, National Law School of India University, India
Sony Pellissery, Institute of Public Policy, National Law School of India University, India
Section 4
Engendering Health

Chapter 14
Contextualizing Healthcare Needs of the Transgender Community in Kerala: A Strategic Approach
Jayasree A. K., Government Medical College, Kannur, India
Bindu M. V., Government Medical College, Kannur, India

Chapter 15
Paradigm Shifts in the Theory and Praxis of Mental Health Counseling
Moly Kuruvilla, Department of Women’s Studies, University of Calicut, India

Chapter 16
Elderly Women Empowerment in the Aging Process: A Cognitive Perspective
Fahri Özsungur, Adana Science and Technology University, Turkey

Section 5
Women and Leadership

Chapter 17
The Road Less Travelled: Challenges Related to the Work-Family Balance of Women Managers in Higher Education
Seema S. P., University of Calicut, India

Chapter 18
Interim Management Strategy as a Way of Empowering Women Leadership
Nermin Kişi, Zonguldak Bülent Ecevit University, Turkey

Chapter 19
Women in Religious Leadership: A New Framework
Leemamol Mathew, Bangalore University, India
H. S. Ashok, Bangalore University, India

Section 6
The Legal System and Gender Equality

Chapter 20
Gender-Based Violence and Legal Frameworks
Maria Louis, Independent Researcher, Kerala, India

Chapter 21
Reproductive Mental Health and the Indian Criminal Legal System: An Unexplored Dimension
Ritika Behl, Symbiosis International University, India
Chapter 22
Social Empowerment of Women in India With Special Focus on the Recent Supreme Court Landmark Decisions ............................................................... 398
Chengappa M. P., The WB National University of Juridical Sciences, India
Aishwarya Roy, Calcutta High Court, India

Chapter 23
Religious Personal Laws in India: Feminist Jurisprudential Perspective........................................ 415
Sonia K. Das, Government Law College, Thrissur, India

Section 7
Best Practices and Models of Gender Mainstreaming

Chapter 24
Kudumbashree: A Comprehensive Social Innovation for Women Empowerment.......................... 437
Chacko Jose P., Sacred Heart College, Chalakudy, India

Chapter 25
Gender Justice and Empowerment: A Study of Chhara Bootlegger Women of Ahmedabad........... 457
Neeta Avtar Khurana, School of Liberal Studies, Pandit Deendayal Petroleum University, India
Ritu Sharma, School of Liberal Studies, Pandit Deendayal Petroleum University, India

Chapter 26
Gender Transformative Change With Men: Lessons From Two Decades of Field Interventions in India ........................................................................................................ 472
Abhijit Das, Centre for Health and Social Justice, India
Satish Kumar Singh, Centre for Health and Social Justice, India
Rimjhim Jain, Centre for Health and Social Justice, India
Sana Contractor, Centre for Health and Social Justice, India

Chapter 27
Eazidi Women’s Practices of Empowerment and Capital Formation Following Enslavement by ISIS ................................................................. 487
Kaziwa Salih, Queen’s University, Canada

Chapter 28
A Radical More-Than-Human Intersectionality in Ecologically Compromised Times: Toward an Attunement to Nonhumans and Indigenous Knowledges ........................................ 509
Sanita Fejzic, Queen’s University, Canada

Compilation of References ........................................................................................................ 530

About the Contributors ........................................................................................................... 600

Index ...................................................................................................................................... 606