Global Information Technologies:
Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications

Felix B. Tan
Auckland University of Technology, New Zealand
Related Content

Integrating ICT in Education: Impact on Teachers' Beliefs and Practices
www.igi-global.com/chapter/integrating-ict-education/48329?camid=4v1a

Out of Scandinavia: Facing Social Risks in IT Development in South Africa
www.igi-global.com/article/out-scandinavia-facing-social-risks/3538?camid=4v1a

Online Communities, Democratic Ideals, and the Digital Divide
www.igi-global.com/chapter/online-communities-democratic-ideals-digital/19124?camid=4v1a

E-Service Quality and Trust on Customer's Patronage Intention: Moderation Effect of Adoption of Advanced Technologies
www.igi-global.com/article/e-service-quality-and-trust-on-customers-patronage-intention/242965?camid=4v1a