E–Justice:
Information and Communication
Technologies in the Court
System

Agustí Cerrillo i Martinez
Open University of Catalonia, Spain

Pere Fabra i Abat
Open University of Catalonia, Spain
Related Content

Mobile Government Services and Resident Satisfaction: Evaluation of Kahramaa Mobile Services www.igi-global.com/article/mobile-government-services-and-resident-satisfaction/247928?camid=4v1a

Justice Beyond the Courts: The Implications of Computerisation for Procedural Justice in Social Security www.igi-global.com/chapter/justice-beyond-courts/9066?camid=4v1a

Cloud Computing in eGovernment: Proposing a Conceptual Stage Model www.igi-global.com/article/cloud-computing-in-egovernment/155187?camid=4v1a

Next Generation E-Government: Reconciling the E-Participation and Data Protection Agendas
www.igi-global.com/chapter/next-generation-e-government/109497?camid=4v1a