Electronic Government: Concepts, Methodologies, Tools, and Applications

Ari–Veikko Anttiroiko
University of Tampere, Finland
Related Content

Developing Countries E-Government Services Evaluation Identifying and Testing Antecedents of Satisfaction Case of Algeria www.igi-global.com/article/developing-countries-e-government-services-evaluation-identifying-and-testing-antecedents-of-satisfaction-case-of-algeria/206173?camid=4v1a

The Demand Side for Development of E-Government Services and Gateway in Turkey: Taking Citizen Perceptions and Suggestions into Account www.igi-global.com/chapter/demand-side-development-government-services/54123?camid=4v1a

Rethinking E-Government Adoption: A User-Centered Model
www.igi-global.com/article/rethinking-e-government-adoption/103893?camid=4v1a

SCRAN: Assembling a Community of Practice for Standardising the Transformation of eGovernment Services www.igi-global.com/chapter/sfuran-assembling-community-practice-standardising/62357?camid=4v1a